

This text is focused on the problems of the documentation of the scrub nurses. It describes the significance of documentation performed by scrub nurses. There are presented cases from various other hospitals in the Czech Republic and one from Austria.
My research deals with the attitude of the scrub nurses to the documentation.