

Abstract

Entitled diploma thesis one by one acquaints its readers with current appearance of ethical education in religious lessons in the Czech Republic. It is divided into several chapters, each of them tries to solve specific problem. The thesis is closed by interviews with teachers of religion in church schools, thus opinions in a conclusion are justified.