

Abstract

Milešov nad Vltavou – dating, wedding ceremonies from the point of view of the original traditions and customs from the end of 19 century till 1940

Preliminary content: The aim of the work is attaining the knowledge of our ancestors traditions and values. From the point of view of our ancestors values the work is going to deal with the style of life with focusing on the interpersonal relationship values, where dating, the course of weddings and following the traditions and customs connected with it is going to be elaborated in village Milešov nad Vltavou. The work is going to find the origin of the traditions and customs and it is going to compare them with other willages of the Czech Republic. It is going to deal with the then society, its social structure and it is going to find the difference in the connection with customs related with the wedding ceremony.

Keywords

dating; customs; love; Milešov nad Vltavou; tradition; wedding