

Subject diploma work is qualitative content analysis articles detailing nurse care about oncological ill patients in Czech sister magazines published in years 1960 – 2004. Aim work is interception picture change in nurse care about oncological ill patients, and how changed competence nurses during period 45 years.