

Abstract

The aim of the diploma thesis "Abelard's Concept of Tolerance as an Inspiration for Intercultural Dialogue in the Contemporary World" will be to introduce Abelard's ethical concept of dialogue in the Dialogue between philosopher, Jew and Christian. I will focus on Abelard's applied concepts of natural law, evil and good in this book, and the different cultural aspects of the dialogue. I will try to pay attention to the possibilities offered by Abelard's Dialog for today's intercultural dialogue.
