

Abstract

The bachelor thesis deals with exploring the spiritual reflection of advent and the Christmas period in the poetic literary work, but also in the life of the poet and painter Bohuslav Reynek. The aim of the thesis is to gain a deeper understanding of the issue and to penetrate the spirituality of advent and Christmas through the person and poetic work of Bohuslav Reynek, based on the Roman Catholic Christian pre-understanding. The main tool is the available literature dealing with the issue.
