Průběh obhajoby: The Defense Committee Chair welcomed present committee members and all participants that and joined the defense online in Microsoft Teams. The Defense Committee Chair initiated the defense by verbal statements confirming (i) that a satisfactory number of Defense Committee Members were present, (ii) that the student fulfilled all the requirements as listed in the Study and Examination Code of Charles University.

The Defense Committee Chair introduced all committee members and asked Jan Mareš to present his dissertation thesis.

Jan Mareš shortly described the main findings of the dissertation. Afterward, Jan Mareš focused on the 4th chapter called "Finance and inequality - panel BMA approach" in more detail.

As Jan Mareš's opponent Prof. H. Belke Ph.D. passed away before the defense, one member of the committee summarized his report. After reading the referees' (appointed by the Graduation Council) comments, an open discussion followed. During the discussion, Jan Mareš satisfactorily answered all the questions from the audience.

During the Defense Committee voting, Jan Mareš left the room, all members of the audience except the two committee members left the online room, and then committee members voted.

The Defense Committee members that were present online confirmed this record in the form of per rollam voting within the next two days.

Question: Your message was that the financial industry has an influence on income distribution. What is your evaluation of the bank role in the sustainable development?

Answer: Jan Mareš view is that it could help the growth, CB should encourage the inclusion and manage the stability of the financial market, but mostly it is the case of the banks' corporate social responsibility.

The committee was satisfied with the answer.
