

The thesis is based on quantitative research of town hill's paper several towns. Towns are from all region of Czech Republic. They are similar in number of inhabitants and structure. I pursue frequent and quality information about sustainable development.