

This work brings czech translation and commentary of saint Bonaventure's work De triplici via. The first part of the text reports on life and work of saint Bonaventure and contextualizes De triplici via by paying attention to other mystical works of Bonaventure. First part also asks the question of actuality of this script. Next part deals with this script as whole, with its theological themes and structure. The main part then brings comprehensive and at times critical commentary and the czech translation of the script. Final part brings short consideration of the question of script's actuality, asked at the beginning. As supplement the work contains also latin text of De triplici via.