

Summary

Bachelor thesis named Cooperation of Authority for Social and Legal Protection of Children via social work in families going through divorce, is focusing on provided professional assistance in rough life situation, which divorce without a doubt is with intention to provide information and ease the negative effects of divorce, especially if there are minors involved in the proces.

Theoretical part is working with main topics like family, divorce and social work in cooperation with Authority for Social and Legal Protection of Children, provided within divorce proceedings.

Practical part will describe specific cases solved within divorce process via case, study, which prove activity of social workers with families.