

Abstract

Title of bachelor thesis: The Holy Spirit in the Gospel of John in Comparison with the Acts of the Apostles.

The bachelor's thesis deals with the topic of the promise, coming and action of the Holy Spirit in the early church and today. The aim of the work is to explain general data on the Gospel of John and the Acts of the Apostles, to present an analysis of selected pericopes and to offer the author's reflections on the identified characters of the Holy Spirit. The purpose of this work is to find out how the writers in selected pericopes describe the action of the Holy Spirit, find matches and differences. The final chapter deals with the action of the Holy Spirit in the Church today.

The work is intended for those who want to find out basic information about the topic and gain insight into the topic and relevant literature.
