Date of defence: 13.09.2022 Venue of defence: Praha
Attempt: regular

Course of defence: [in person] The student presented the thesis defence using the following structure: introduction to the topic and the relevance of choosing the case countries in the Balkans. E.g. Kosovo and its recognition as independent from Serbia. North Macedonia and the cultural affinity with Greece and Albania due to their border. Dr Semerák mentions how relevant could have been to include other's perspectives of Greece since the thesis has the Greek perspective already. Dr Tesař refers to the hypothetical nature of the research question since it focuses on predicting what would happen if Greece became a regional power in the Balkans. After the discussion, the committee concluded with the questions.

Result of defence: very good (C)
