

Abstract

The Diploma thesis „Small sacral monuments in the town of Lanškroun“ provides a comprehensive overview of small sacral monuments in the town of Lanškroun, with the primary focus being restored or newly built monuments. In the first part of the work, I describe the characteristics of this locality, basic typology and history, iconography, and the method of restoration of small church monuments in Lanškroun. The second part focuses on the pastoral use of small sacral monuments, and the circumstances that led to their creation or repair.