

The main purpose of this work is found out motivation of volunteers in: YMCA-Živá rodina and O.s. Bodaj. In the first part of this work I describe basic themes connected with motivation. At the first I describe motivation, needs, merits and two theories of motivation by Maslow and Murray. Next chapter is about prosocial behaviour. I try to explain prosocial personality and why people help too. In the final chapter of theoretic part I wrote about volunteers at large and after about volunteers in YMCA-Živá rodina and O.s. Bodaj too. Second big part is about research of motivation by questionnaires and interview. In the final part of this work I present results of this research.
