

The thesis describes difficulties of families with autistic child and changes caused by nativity of such child. Five mothers are interviewed how they made place with this diagnosis, about their families, friends and possible return to their jobs.