Průběh obhajoby: The student presented the thesis to the evaluation committee and outlined the research question, the testing method, the main results, and their implications. The evaluation committee went through the main comments raised in the supervisor's and the opponent's reports and invited the student to respond to them. The evaluation committee appreciated that the author chose to analyze a research question relevant to the current socio-economic debate that may have important policy implications. The committee appreciated that the author could present and clearly motivate the methodological approaches to test his research question. The committee also appreciated that the author showed awareness of prior research in this area, and he was able to critically evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of his approach relative to other approaches used in prior empirical research. The evaluation committee also appreciated that the student could respond well to the questions by the committee. Taken together, the committee appreciated the quality of the thesis and the presentation and decided on grade A.
