

My bachelor's thesis is called „Child, illness, hospital“. These three words express the theme. I chose the topic of a hospitalized child for several reasons. Among them is my volunteering in Motol teaching hospital, my work experience in Dětské Kardiocentrum and least but not last a personal experience from my childhood. The text falls in two parts – a theoretical and a practical one.