

Annotation

The main aim of this thesis is to find out the opinion of people with hearing impairment about the efforts of the majority society to reduce communication barriers and thus to facilitate better integration into the majority society. To achieve this and sub-objectives, I would like to prove this through a structured questionnaire sent out to people with hearing impairment (schools and organisations) across the country.

Keywords: communication, hearing disability, socialization, society