

We define a class of lower dimensional measures by averaging the Lebesgue measure from the set projection over all orthogonal projections. We show some relations with the Hausdorff measure and construct sets on which this measure differs from the Hausdorff measure.