

Abstract

The aim of the submitted thesis is to introduce a new edition of the short story collection by Emanuel Lešehrad called The Staircase of Delusion. The thesis includes, next to the edition of the collection, editorial note and explanatory notes. Theoretical part of the thesis summarizes a brief autobiography of the author and characteristic of the collection and reflects its period response.