The student presented his thesis, beginning with a brief background and motivation leading to the research topic and hence, its relevance for security studies. He then elaborated on the policy implications of his research. Soon, Dr. Bureš redirects the student towards describing the methodology in more detail.

[CU Committee]: Dr. Bureš (chair) went through the reviewers' comments and invited the student to elaborate on the criticisms regarding the critical missing links between the proposed methodology and what is presented in the thesis structure. The student elaborates on the data gathering, giving some hints of the participants without disclosing major details. Dr. Bureš brought the discussion to how one of the reviewers pointed out that the theoretical framework is not properly located in the literature review. The student explained. Dr. Bureš followed up by asking if there were any spottable differences in the Nigerian telecommunication companies' characteristics. The student replied by giving examples. The defence concluded with no further inquiries from the committee.
