Attempt: regular

Course of defence: Defence: reviews propose E/51, D/58 and E/53, an average mark is E/54. The main critical points: very descriptive including the literature review, disorganized structure of the paper, analytical findings are often not based on argument (rather intuitive) because the sample of data is not sufficient enough to prove the reliability of the analysis. Orientation of the student in the mentioned areas was not also very good, some additional questions were answered, however, the prevailing critical emphasis is on rather improvised character of the paper. The board decided to keep E/54.
