Dear Dr. Martin Huňady,

I am pleased to submit you my report on the Rebuttal Letter for Doctoral Dissertation titled “The Islamist Movement Interactions within the Arab Uprisings: The Impact of the Islamist Movements' Interactions on the Democratization Process and the Level of Radicalization” by Mohamed Saad.

Upon careful examination of the modifications implemented by Mr. Saad to his dissertation, as well as his responses to the queries and remarks I raised during my initial perusal of the dissertation, it is my assessment that he has made significant improvements. Consequently, I find the revised dissertation to be accepted.

I concur with the notion that the topic addressed in this work necessitates additional scholarly investigation to address the various contentious aspects surrounding it. I am confident that Mr. Saad will be able to use his research and analytic tools to make this dissertation the initial step in his research journey.

Finally, I would also like to thank you, Dr. Martin Huňady, for allowing me to read this valuable work. I appreciate Mr. Saad's efforts and wish him prosperity and repayment. I am delighted to have contributed to his postgraduate research development at University of Alexandria, Egypt and Charles University, Austria.

All the best

Abdel-Fattah Mady, PhD.
