MSc. Daria Nawrot was Born 7/11/1992 in Sosnowiec, Poland. She passed Faculty of Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry at University of Silesia, Bachelor's and Master's Degree in Chemistry 2012-2017. 2018 she started her PhD studies at the Department of Pharmaceutical Chemistry and Drug Analysis, Faculty of Pharmacy in Hradec Králové, Charles University in Prague.

She obtained very good experience in the synthesis of small molecules (mostly derived from pyrazine and pyridine), synthesis in Microwave Reactor. She was working with chemical databases and software. She synthesized a few new compounds and evaluated their antimycobacterial, antibacterial, and antifungal activities. During her PhD stay, Msc. Nawrot used her great critical thinking ability in solving many research problems. She was also successful in publishing work.

Daria passed all exams, finished her abroad internship. She successfully completed most of the planned tasks and at the same time presented the results of her scientific work in the form of publications in reputable scientific journals. MSc. Daria Nawrot was a valuable member of our research team.
