

ABSTRACT

This thesis deals with the preparation of a thematic plan for a history seminar at Elementary school of General František Fajtl DFC, a description of the prepared sample lessons and their course. It concludes with a feedback through a questionnaire survey. The contribution of this work is the future inclusion of the prepared thematic plan in the history seminar of the selected school and the subsequent modification of the school curriculum.