Date of defence: 17.06.2024 Venue of defence: Praha - Jinonice
Attempt: regular

Course of the examination: Reviewers proposed low B (supervisor), and two high Ds. The main problems were that paper should go more deeply, not all regression models were properly argued, some empirical results and their robustness should be tested in a better way. The overall impression is that the text is more descriptive. Student was able to explain some of these issues and also additional questions were answered correctly.

Result of defence: very good (C)
