

We investigate martingales on the Cantor space that diverge on a comeager set. It was already shown that in all standard spaces, those martingales themselves form a comeager set. We elaborate on those results and show that the set of such martingales is even co- σ -porous, resp. co-porous. We also prove that our results can not be strengthened in any straightforward way.