In this thesis we firstly show some elementary properties of Fermat numbers and Fermat primes, for which we prove when prime is necessarily Fermats and later we state interesting property of Fermat primes and Eulers totient function. After all that we will talk about constructability and methods of constructions. Main topics will be constructibility of regular polygons and Heronian triangles.