PhDr. Petr Dvořák, Ph.D.

Date of defence: 09.09.2024 Venue of defence: Praha
Attempt: regular

Course of the examination: The supervisor introduced the PhD student and the results of her study plan. Flora Keysan presented the theoretical background, methodology and results of her research in a clear and structured way. The reports of both opponents were read and questions were asked from them. Flora Keysan answered them in an exhaustive manner. A discussion followed, in which the PhD student commented on the questions directed to the methodology (selection of respondents for the experimental and control groups, intervening variables) as well as the differences between her thesis and dissertation. The committee, in accordance with Prof. Rahmani's report, concluded that Flora Keysan's dissertation is an original work of authorship with an undeniable contribution to the discipline of education.
