

Abstract

The bachelor's thesis deals with the educational field of health education and the topic of health in the school curriculum of various countries and health care in the school environment. As part of the search, educational documents from the Czech Republic, Spain, France, Great Britain, Denmark, the USA and Japan were searched. The aim of the work is to compare the methods of teaching health education in these countries.

Key words

Health Education, healthy lifestyle, primary and secondary school, high school, curriculum, Health promotion