Course of the examination: Radha Sanjeev Puranik presented her topic, "Media Framing of Civic Issues in Post-Pandemic Mumbai: A Study of Urban Governance and Civic Journalism". First, she outlined the theoretical background, methodology and research design. Then, she emphasized the main results from the analysis. Sandra Lábová, as a supervisor, appreciated the topic; she mentioned that the theoretical part could be developed more precisely. Kateřina Turková, as an opponent, noted that she has objections according to the structure and discussion that could be developed more. According to the form, there were some minor mistakes. However, KT highlighted that there were inappropriate forms of direct quotations. However, she appreciated the research, especially the transparency in the methodology section. Radha Puranik then answered all of the questions.
