

Summary

The bachelor's thesis focuses on the reception of the hymnody of the Unity of the Brethren in the Evangelical Hymnal of the Evangelical Church of the Czech Brethren. The thesis is divided into several central topics, including the historical and cultural context of the Unity of the Brethren, the hymnody of the Unity of the Brethren, an analysis of the theological, cultural, and liturgical aspects of the Brethren's hymns, and an examination of the Evangelical Hymnal. The thesis further explores the reception and contemporary interpretation of the Brethren's hymns within the Evangelical Church of the Czech Brethren and their use in church services, contributing to the understanding of the hymnody of the Unity of the Brethren in the context of the Evangelical Hymnal and its use in the Evangelical Church of the Czech Brethren.