

The doctoral theses titled by: Jesus Christ, Brother and Neighbour Act in My Place. Deputyship in Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Theology presents a contribution to the systematic-theological discussion concerning the relationship theology to deputyship. The submitted work has been divided into eight chapters. First of all, the concept of deputyship is being presented as a burning actual problem together with the current research situation in this field. In addition to that, the submitted paper observes Bonhoeffer thinking in the systematic-theological context. All of the following parts elucidate the content and theological connections of the deputyship from the following point of views: from the anthropologic hamartological, historic-biblical, Christological, ecclesiological-ethical and socially-ethical.
