

In this diploma work i will be interested in experience of nurses with the blood transaction and blood derivate. Part of my diploma work is research about blood – transfusion application problems, experience of nurses with practise of transfusion, if they have got all information and know all complications, which could happend and if they are controled by doctors during this operation. After agreement of deputy manager for nurse care I have done this survey investigation in the four Prague's teaching hospitals.