

Diploma thesis „ Fifty years of Chomutov's weekly newspaper Nástup“ deals with the weekly development from 1960 to 2010. It covers the changes of the content and also describes personal changes, development of its price and the number of pages. The work is focused on the August week in 1968, when Nástup was published every day. The diploma thesis also deals with Nástup's ancestors and gathers media and social development in ČSR (ČR) and Chomutov's region.
