

West Nile virus is a new kind of virus of the family Flaviviridae genus flavivirus. Serology belongs to the group of Japanese encephalitis virus, which also includes the viruses causing encephalitis - St. Louis virus, and Kunjin, Murray Valley. Thesis deals with the clinical signs, treatment, diagnosis of WNV, connects the state of infection rate in the Czech Republic.