

Bachelor thesis deals with analysis of two protectorate journals, daily paper České Slovo and magazine for women Eva, with regards to the call appeals and articles arousing readers to support protectorate institutions. Bachelor thesis focuses on the appeals of the protectorate authorities for social assistance towards the Third Reich by contributing to the German Red Cross and Winterhilfswerk, or by filling posts freed by soldiers fighting at the front.