

The bacalary contents a short overview of the most important food supplement's components – vitamins and minerals and description of food supplement's registry procedure due to a current legislation.

The bacalary is componed of two parts. There are a categorization of vitamins and minerals, their natural sources and functions in the first part. A general information about a food supplements and their notification are in the second part.