

The subject of my bachelor work is about comparasion of long-time trend incidence of lyme disease and tick-borne in Hradec Kralove region.

I chose this subject, because I'm interested in this issue.

My bachelor work contains 3 parts. The first and second part is theoretic and include general informations about lyme disease and tick-borne. The last part is practical. This part includes charts and graphs respecting both disorders.