

I observe development landscape and flora in surrounding of Horni Viska from spring 2004 to spring 2006. Locality is in Czech-germany border near Tachov. It is a cultural landscape which is typical for displacement of a germany inhabitants after the second world war. The Thesis describes a current vegetation character and a development of exploitation of areas in surrounding of Horni Viska. The Thesis tests a methodology of geobotanical indication too.