

I chose epoch of Weimar republic as my diploma thesis. I specially focused on history of Jews in Berlin. I tried to describe whole social situation based on political, economical and cultural condition. Main goal is to find out Jews social status in Weimar society. If they were separated, as before, or if they were assimilated and how much they were participated in the golden Age of the 1920s in Berlin.