

The aim of the work was to describe transparently the development of GATT and first of all WTO. The complexity and topicality was stressed as well as the influence on Czechoslovakia or the Czech republic now. The work is organized chronologically except for the last part which is dedicated directly to the position of the domestic economy in the purview of international business. There was the highest effort to bring balanced information and to picture consequences they cause for international business GATT and WTO.