

Abstract

Title: History of scuba diving and freediving

Objectives: The main goal of the thesis is to gather available information and resources about scuba diving describe and analyze the historical development of diving and freediving.

Methods: In order to achieve the objective of the thesis, it has been analysed all available information including literature, internet software, materials about diving, description, comparison and interview.

Results: This thesis shall provide, to those interested in the sport and to general public, a comprehensive and clear description and historical development of diving and diving equipment from the early beginnings to the present, with main focus on freediving.

Keywords: history of diving, sport, diving, swimming, freediving.