

The story of the creation of Adam and guilt from the first chapters of Genesis was a man living in Jewish or Christian tradition key. What happened or what made the first people, it is a far-reaching impact on all of their offspring. In this thesis I want to motives of the creation of man and the story of the garden and the importance of knowledge of Adam and Eve as setovské describe the Gnostic texts.