

This thesis is concerned with seniors education in religious area. The text gives comprehensive information about problems of this life stage and point out the changes that these years bring and seniors have to deal with. It describes the importance of religion to cope with age and the constant need of being educated associated with it. This work outlines the learning opportunities and summary of activities helping with spiritual growth. The thesis includes practical demonstration of religious education cycle which is important part of care for elderly believers.