

As the theme for my thesis I have chosen the question of the formation of the New Testament canon, a question that is closely connected with the separation of church and synagogue. I decided to deal with the issues involved from the viewpoint of the origins of the Christian Bible, which contains the Old and the New Testament.