

The general aim of the bachelor theses is focused in analyse of curent management position within the sports club of wheelchair bound caled Sharks. On its behalf the authoress is suggesting an implementation concept of direction of the mentioned club. The analysis is focused on the main manager duties of the organization and methodologically exploits the SWOT analysis and other methods for obtaining primary data.