

2. Summary

Elaborate the operating instruction and give it to reconcile to Agency of control of public health is liability of all owners of medical institutions, implicit from law of control of public health ( 258/2000 Sb.). This operating instruction should include especially steps leading to minimize the risk of incidence of nosocomial infections. Practically is nevertheless risk of incidence about 10 percent.

Exact rules, how should the operating instruction appears are not determined. Its version is depend on discretion of the owner of the medical institution. But it must contain rules determined by several implementing regulations.

Activities, to which is necessary to elaborate the operating instruction and give it for reconciliation to Agency of control of public health , can be opened only when the operating instruction was reconciliated by this Agency. Persons, who must elaborate the operating instructions, must get acquainted with these instructions all other members, working at the workplace provide and control it's keeping. This is also controlled by Agency of control of public health, that can direct the owner to put into effect some alterations of this instructions, when the steps included in this instructions do not lead decrease of appearance of nosocomial infections.