

Abstract

The title of the bachelor's thesis: The case study of a physiotherapeutic care of a patient after lateral patellar dislocation

Summary: The general part includes detailed description of anatomy, kinesiology and biomechanics of the knee joint. It includes information about examination of knee joint, diagnostics and ensuing therapy too. The detailed case study of a patient after arthroscopy of the left knee joint is content of the special part.

Key words: arthroscopy, physiotherapy, knee joint, patellar luxation, patella