

This thesis deals with theological and ethical approach to biblical Apocalypse - New Testament Revelation - based on a comparison of two historically and theologically significant sources "Interpretation of the revelation of St. John " by Master Jakoubka of Silver and "Interpretation Šestidílký" from the workshop Kralických.